

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION

Section 196G of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986

The Repatriation Medical Authority gives notice under section 196G of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (the Act) that it intends to carry out an investigation in respect of open-angle glaucoma, particularly in relation to stress, and open-angle glaucoma, particularly in relation to malignant melanoma of the choroid following a request for review under section 196E(1)(f) of the Act.

This investigation will be carried out in the context of Statements of Principles concerning open-angle glaucoma (Instrument No.241 of 1995).

The Authority invites the following persons and organisations to make written submissions to the Authority in respect of the investigation:

- any person eligible to make a claim for pension under Part II or Part IV of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986;
- any organisation representing veterans, Australian mariners, members of the Forces, members of the Peacekeeping Forces or their dependants;
- the Repatriation Commission; and
- any person having expertise in a field relevant to the investigation.

The Repatriation Medical Authority will hold its first meeting for the purposes of the investigation on 30 July 1998.

Under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986, the RMA is required to find out whether there is a new body of sound medical-scientific evidence about open-angle glaucoma, particularly in relation to stress, and in relation to malignant melanoma of the choroid. Therefore, persons and organisations wishing to make a submission should obtain from the RMA Secretariat (at the address and phone number below) a copy of the RMA Submission Guidelines.

All submissions must be in writing and received by the Authority at the address below no later than 26 June 1998.
