NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION – PELVIC ORGAN PROLAPSE

Section 370CJ of the

Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004

The Repatriation Medical Authority (the Authority) gives notice under section 370CJ of the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (the MRCA) that it intends to carry out an investigation pursuant to section 370CD of the MRCA to find out whether Statements of Principles may be determined in respect of pelvic organ prolapse.

The Authority invites written submissions about the investigation from the following persons and organisations:

- a person eligible to make a claim for compensation under section 319 of the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (the MRCA);
- an organisation representing veterans, Australian mariners or members of the Forces (all within the meaning of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986);
- an organisation representing members or their dependants;
- the Commission; and
- a person having expertise in a field relevant to the investigation.

The Authority will hold its first meeting for the purposes of this investigation on 16 February 2027.

Under the MRCA, the Authority must determine whether new information is available about how pelvic organ prolapse may be suffered or contracted, or how death from pelvic organ prolapse may occur.

The Authority must also consider the extent to which pelvic organ prolapse, or death from pelvic organ prolapse, may be war-caused, defence-caused, a service injury, a service disease or a service death.

Persons and organisations wishing to make a submission may lodge their submission and supporting information electronically through the RMA website http://www.rma.gov.au/investigations/.

Submissions may also be emailed to info@rma.gov.au or posted to the address below.

The RMA Submission Guidelines are available online. For further assistance, contact the RMA Secretariat using the address, telephone number or email address below.

All submissions must be in writing and received by the Authority by 19 January 2027.
